Program impact

Concert 2 of our 2025 season, featuring Jose Gallegos and his band, presents the Transamazonia Ballet, a captivating tribute to the musical heritage of the Amazon. By blending various styles and influences, this performance creates an engaging atmosphere that invites audiences to explore new sounds, while also educating them about the cultural significance of Amazonian music and the importance of preserving its traditions.

Through this concert, we promote inclusivity and connection, bringing together individuals from diverse backgrounds to celebrate the universal language of music. As attendees experience the beauty of Amazonian rhythms, they are encouraged to embrace and appreciate cultural diversity within their community, ultimately enriching the artistic landscape of Miami.
